DeKalb County Horsemen's Association and Draft Animal Museum

5873 CR 427 • Auburn, Indiana

OUR MISSION

The DeKalb County Horsemen's Association focuses on educating the public and our youth. This mission is accomplished through seminars, public exhibitions, support of 4-H programs, and interactive education on the history, use and care of draft animals.

The Association is a non-profit charitable organization under IRS code 501c (3). Each year we donate to other non-profit groups and organizations in our community to support their activities.

Your tax deductible donation to the Association keeps our mission moving forward and directly supports the Draft Animal Museum at 5873 CR 427, Auburn, Indiana.

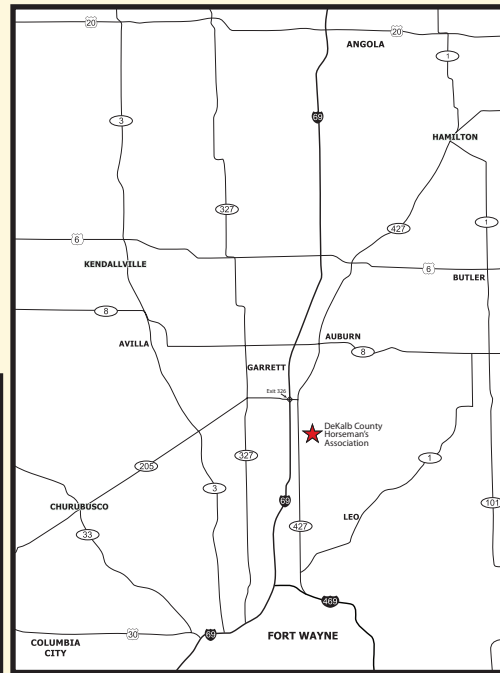

Produced in cooperation with the DeKalb County Visitor's Bureau

SERVICE

The Horsemen's Association provides a service to the community in the form of wagons rides for public and private events such as weddings, birthdays, funerals and anniversaries. We provide logging of timber, field plowing, planting and other farm related uses of draft animals. We are local draft animal enthusiasts devoted to the preservation of these gentle giants of the farm.

DEMONSTRATIONS

The Horsemen's Assoc. operates the Draft Animal Museum and a small farm located at 5873 CR 427, Auburn, Indiana. The museum is now open by appt. and select hours.

The Horsemen will be hosting our annual Summer Harvest Festival on July 17 & 18. We will be demonstrating all types of horse drawn farm equipment used during the late 1800's and early 20th century, horse pulling contests, harvesting, wagon rides and food. Check our website and Facebook page for a schedule of this and other upcoming events in 2020.
